

ROTARY DISTRICT 5100
Essentials of Rotary Knowledge: A Self Study Course.
(Previously known as District Leadership Training Course)

This unique training program is designed for those Rotary members desiring to improve their knowledge about Rotary and how they might use this to become better members and potentially more effective leaders in their clubs, the district or beyond. This training will be invaluable for those who will serve as future club presidents. Instructors are all experienced in their subjects and offer personal interaction with the participants.

This is a seven-month effort covering the following subjects

- History of Rotary International
- Organization of Rotary International and District 5100
- International Service – The Rotary Foundation (TRF)
- International Service – World Community Service (WCS)
- Club Service
- Community Service
- Vocational Service
- Membership Development and Retention

Requirements:

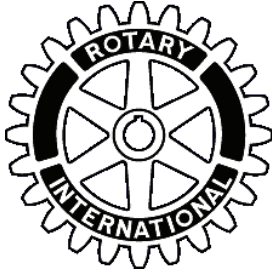

- Be an active member of a Rotary club in District 5100
- Commitment to complete each course of study on time
- Attendance at the 2010 District Assembly [Club Officer/Member Training Assembly]
- Pay a $40.00 registration fee (to cover material and postage)

Application forms are available from the club presidents-elect, the district office and online at the district website www.district5100.org. Applications will be accepted until July 1st. All applications will be subject to review and approval by the Leadership Training Committee, as class size will be limited to forty (40).

Please contact me with any questions.

Candidate's Agreement of Understanding

All Self Study Course applicants must read and sign this "Candidate's Agreement of Understanding" prior to their being considered for participation in this program. This signed form must accompany the Application Form.

The District 5100 Self Study Course is an eight-month series of courses designed to provide Rotarians with greater knowledge and understanding of Rotary, with the intent the participants will become more involved in club, district and possibly higher levels of leadership. Taking part in this program requires a strong commitment on the part of the individuals selected. To assist the candidate in deciding whether to participate or not, this "Agreement of Understanding" was prepared. It is important that all candidates understand the requirements before they agree to be considered for this program.

The Self Study Course requirements are as follows:

1. Be prepared to spend the better part of a day to complete each course. The amount of time spent on each course will depend on the student's knowledge of the specific course material.
2. Attendance at an orientation meeting May 1, 2010 at the District Conference, is strongly recommended.
3. Attendance at 2010 COMTA is required.
4. Students are encouraged to attend a Foundation Seminar to be held during 2009-10.
5. Attend a graduation ceremony during the District Conference, May 21-May 23, 2010.
6. Self Study course exams are to be completed and submitted as of the last day of each course schedule. Students are not to proceed to the next course until the previous course has been completed. Students who become 30 days or more behind will be subject to being dropped from the Leadership Training.
7. Payment of forty dollar ($40.00) registration fee to help cover material.

I have read the above District 5100 Self Study Course requirements and fully understand what will be expected of me if I am selected to participate in the 2009-10 course. Understanding all of the above requirements, I am willing to make the commitment to spend the time necessary to complete the courses and attend the events noted and hereby request that my name be placed in consideration for the 2009-10 course year.
